

PROGRAM FOR MEDICAL HUMANITIES SEMINAR MEDICINE AND WAR

March 23rd & March 24th 2006

Seminar Room 6

THE DARLINGTON CENTRE, UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

Thursday 23rd March

12.30pm	Lunch in the Forum Restaurant (at individual expense*)
1.30pm	Introduction Professor Yvonne Cossart, Bosch Professor Dept Infectious Diseases and Immunology
1.45pm	Representations of the psychological impact of World War I in Pat Barker's 'Regeneration' Trilogy Associate Professor Jill Gordon
2.30pm	War Trauma and Rehabilitation: Army Psychiatry in World War II Dr Hans Pols, Unit for History & Philosophy of Science
3.15pm	Discussion and questions
3.30pm	Tea/coffee break
3.45pm	Representations of war trauma: the advent of photography Dr Margaret Morgan
4.15pm	Ms. Sioux Garside Curator University Art Collection
4.45pm	Discussion and questions
5.00pm	Close Day 1

* RSVP Jill Gordon on 9036 9543 or jill.gordon@arts.usyd.edu.au

Friday 24th March

8.30am	Tea/coffee
9.00am	Sexually transmitted infections and war Associate Professor Basil Donovan Director, Sydney Sexual Health Centre.
9.45am	Hepatitis and the soldier Professor Yvonne Cossart
10.30am	Questions and discussions
11.00am	Tea/coffee break
11.30am	Medicine betrayed: Ethical dilemmas for doctors in wartime Associate Professor Ian Kerridge Director, Centre for Values, Ethics and the Law in Medicine
1.00pm	Lunch
2.00pm	Counting the cost of war Professor Stephen Garton Dean, Faculty of Arts
2.45pm	Discussion and questions
3.15pm	Tea/coffee break
3.45pm	Student debate: "It is not possible to justify a role for medicine in war"
5.00pm	Close