

The University of Sydney
FACULTY OF MEDICINE
The John Brooke Moore Scholarship in Surgery

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

Established in 1979 by a bequest from Moira Brooke Moore to establish a postgraduate scholarship in surgery to the memory of her father Dr John Brooke Moore, who practised surgery for many years in Bathurst, N.S.W.

Eligibility

1. The scholarship is only open to graduates of the University of Sydney.
2. Applicants must be an Australian citizen, a New Zealand citizen or an Australian permanent resident as at the application closing date.
3. To be able to take up the scholarship, a student must be enrolled full-time in the Master of Surgery (by coursework).

Tenure

4. An award shall be tenable for up to one year.
5. A student may not hold another scholarship in conjunction with the John Brooke Moore Scholarship in Surgery. Furthermore, if a student is offered another scholarship s/he must accept that scholarship and relinquish his/her John Brooke Moore Scholarship in Surgery.
6. A student must commence his or her scholarship by the date stipulated in the letter of offer. A request to defer commencement of the award will only be considered subject to Faculty approval to defer commencement of candidature. See also sections 10 and 11 on Suspensions.

Value

7. Each scholarship is valued at $25,000, tax-exempt. The scholarship will be paid in 10 equal amounts monthly from 1 March of the year of commencement.

Employment

8. John Brooke Moore Scholarship in Surgery holders may undertake part-time work up to a maximum of twenty hours per week, evening, weekend and holiday work included. If employed by the University, the appointment must not exceed half time or 50% of a full time position. However, work undertaken must not interfere with the student's study programme and progress.

Transfer

9. Scholarship holders who transfer to another degree (other than PhD in Surgery) will forfeit the remainder of their scholarship from the date of application.

Suspension

10. Students may not apply for a suspension within the first semester of the tenure of their scholarship.

11. The John Brooke Moore Scholarship in Surgery holders may apply for up to 12 months suspension for any reason during the tenure of their award, subject to item 10. Periods of suspension are cumulative and failure to resume study after suspension will result in the award being terminated. Approval to suspend must be given both by the Faculty and by the Head of the Discipline of Surgery.

Changes in Enrolment

12. Scholarship holders must notify the Discipline of Surgery and the Faculty of Medicine promptly of any changes to their enrolment including but not limited to: attendance pattern, suspension, withdrawal and course transfer. If the award holder does not provide notice of the changes identified above, then the University may require repayment of any overpaid amount of the scholarship.

Satisfactory Progress

13. John Brooke Moore Scholarship in Surgery holders must maintain satisfactory progress during the scholarship tenure.

Termination

14. The award will be terminated on resignation or withdrawal of the student from the course or at the end of the award, whichever is earlier. Awards will be terminated before this time if after due enquiry the University concludes that a student has not carried out the course of study with competence and diligence or in accordance with the offer of the John Brooke Moore Scholarship in Surgery, or fails to maintain satisfactory progress, or has committed serious misconduct.

I hereby agree to abide by the Conditions of Award and accept the John Brooke Moore Scholarship in Surgery.

.....
Name (Please print)

.....
Signature Date